Dr. Oren Wacht

HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EMERGENCY MEDICINE AT BGU

An experienced EMT who was called up for reserve duty in the wake of October 7th, Dr. Wacht will share his first-hand experience and his work leading BGU's Field Family Medical Simulation Center.

Dr. Oren Wacht is the head of the Department of Emergency Medicine and academic director of BGU's Field Family Medical Simulation Center in the Rachel and Max Javit Medical Simulation and Classroom Building. He received his bachelor's degree in emergency medical services and his postgraduate degree in health systems management from BGU.

As a member of the BGU faculty, Dr. Wacht is the head of the program for paramedics at BGU.

Dr. Wacht is also the academic manager of the Field Family Medical Simulation Center at BGU. This Center ensures that BGU students who receive a master's degree in emergency medicine are equipped to help in emergencies and disaster relief worldwide.
