Romi is in her final year of studies in BGU's accelerated two-year bachelor's program in Social Work. She is also a graduate of the 30+ preparatory program at Ben-Gurion University, Eilat Campus.

Originally from Eilat, she now lives in Kibbutz Yahel in the Arava region with her husband and two daughters. After years as a therapeutic riding instructor, teaching horseback riding lessons to individuals with disabilities, she transitioned to academia to deepen her professional expertise and expand her therapeutic knowledge.

Romi plans to pursue a master's degree with a thesis and eventually continue to doctoral studies in the field. In her free time, she enjoys hiking with her family through the vast desert landscapes, embracing the unique natural surroundings of her home.
